

THE ARMENIAN STUDIES PROGRAM
University of Michigan, Ann Arbor

Presents
a public lecture by

Mr. Armen Harutyunyan
Human Rights Defender of the Republic of Armenia

“Human Rights and Law Enforcement in Armenia and the South Caucasus”

3:00 – 4:30 PM, Thursday April 9, 2009
At the Michigan League
Koessler Room (floor 3)

Mr. Harutyunyan was appointed chief Human Rights Defender of Armenia or Ombudsman in February 2006 and has held that position through the tumultuous last few years, facing many challenges. He has also followed closely human rights developments in neighboring Azerbaijan and Georgia.

Mr. Harutyunyan is on a tour of the United States, sponsored by the US Department of State.

At the University of Michigan Mr. Harutyunyan is being hosted by the International Center.

Refreshments will be served.

The lecture is open to the general public and will be webcast live.

<http://umtv-live.rs.itd.umich.edu/asp/asp040909.aspx>